Nothing is so beautiful as spring
When weeds are in bloom

Coals of the earth

You're invited to a Seasonal Party!

A detailed illustration of a hand holding a white paper airplane. The airplane is folded in a way that its wings are spread out, and it is angled upwards. The hand is shown from the side, with the thumb and index finger gripping the body of the plane. The background is a textured, light brown surface. Overlaid on the background is a poem in a black, serif font. The poem describes the transition from winter to spring, mentioning weeds, sun, and snow. The paper airplane itself has a handwritten invitation in a dark, cursive script that reads 'You're invited to a Seasonal Party!'.

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.
It was but yesterday we met in a dream. You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky...

...But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn. The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned into fuller day, and we must part.

If in twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song

And if our hands should meet in another dream, we shall build another tower in the sky.

Mr. Raymond Sinnott

If there is one man at MASCO who can get a Freshman interested enough to read a book it is Mr. Sinnott. Behind all the noises, voices, and antics, Mr. Sinnott is a truly dynamic educator. His style of teaching is unlike any other. For this reason the Class of 2000 would like to honor his efforts and express our gratitude in our yearbook.

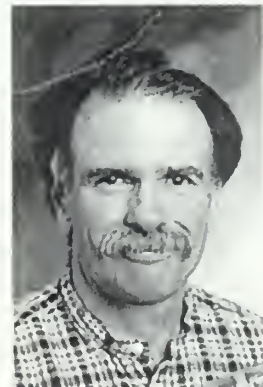

Mr. Sinnott always finds a way to fill the classroom with laughter as well as knowledge. His students describe him as funny and energetic, interesting, and dedicated to all of his students and athletes. As a coach, Mr. Sinnott inspires his athletes to "run the extra mile."

His coaching technique brings out the best performances from his runners. He instills in them the most positive attitude towards the sport. Year after year, Mr. Sinnott's team competes at the top in the Cape Ann League. His brand of competition includes having fun and making friends.

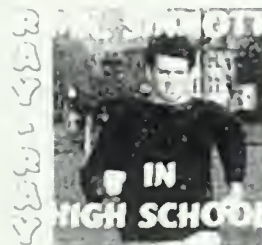

Mr. Sinnott's relationship with his students at Masconomet is not limited to that of a coach or teacher, but also that of a friend. His caring and easy going personality makes him one of the most respected members of the Masconomet community. He has had a lasting imprint on our lives and remains a true role model for us to follow. Thank you Mr. Sinnott, we will never forget you and the sound of the mockingbird.

"Fah-da-dah!"

Congratulations
SINNOTT

"He has a wonderful sense of humor and a dry wit that cannot be matched. He has a big, beautiful smile when he laughs and a little smirk that flashes for a moment when he thinks you said something amusing - although didn't actually mean it to be."

Andrew and Nicholas

School days in the fall.
 Andrew is a good brother...
 Nicholas also looks out for his little brother."

Christmas 1998

Andrew loves the woods
 in the cold and the snow.
 That is his favorite time."

End of Summer 1997

Having worked 55 hours a week all summer, Andrew finally rewarded himself on this day with the purchase of a chainsaw, helmet, and chaps to start his own business.

January 1999

Self Portrait by Andrew, with Sam. Snowmobile after a herd of deer on a snowy trail. Jump off and tackle the slowest one. Give him a pat and let him go. Happy times in the snow.

*"The first tree of the day comes down:
 Snow from last night gets thrown in the air.
 Ever so slowly it falls to the ground
 But in the sunlight it seems to hang there.
 A smile after a jump off the rope swing
 Or after fixing his truck, that smoky thing.*

"He is one of us."

I've spent the majority of my life trying to figure out who I want to be. And it is because of my dearest friends that I now have a pretty good idea. CW, you are a great friend. AO, you've influenced me more than you could ever know. PB. Bad influence? Nah. AC, my partner in irrelevance. JP,I'd be honored if you always think of me as a great friend I've learned now that no matter how hard, the only path worthwhile is goodness, but that doesn't mean I can't be mischievous, too.
Remember, people's opinions are inconsequential when they don't have your respect. Sometimes bad things happen to good people. Don't dwell. I suggest you cope with it accordingly and hopefully have friends nearby willing to help like I was fortunate enough to have. My door, my heart and my ears all always open, don't ever hesitate to call on me. Love is eternal. I.L.Y.

Well, this is it. I can't believe that the years went by so fast. I've done so much and learned so much about myself. First of all I want to thank my Dad, Mom and my brother Ryan. You've always been there for me whenever I needed you. I can never thank you enough. Mrs. Shane, thank you for bringing music into my life. Mr. West, thank you for giving me a chance to shine as an actor. Mr. O, my teacher and mentor. Thank you for turning a young singer in a mature performer. To Ben, Mike, Rob, Cheev, Stevenson, Twinks ('ELLO!), Boyd, Hamilton, Skikne, Spanks; you are my 'boyz' and true friends. You will always be with me. To Rags (HALF-BREEDS RULE!), Ems, Becky, Kris (BASSES RULE!), Corissa, Anna, Jenn; you all mean so much to me. I will never forget you. Never forget the good times we had together.

In a sea of faces it's easy to become lost.
But it's what you do with your time, that decides the kind of wave you make.

I want to thank Ms. Hass, Mr. Gavron and Ms. Due for helping me with problems that surfaced from time to time.

We walk through the halls of Masco as time passes by,
We have not always seen completely eye to eye;
Many times have we seen the sky turn blue to gray,
And we have been over come with sadness many days;
We wage wars and battles against life everyday;
Winning some and continuing out on our way;
High school is ending but the battles keep coming,
But the lessons we have learned have not be for nothing.

to start off my little place in the world, i'd like to remind all those who read this that "sticking feathers up your butt does not make you a chicken" and that "there's a difference between knowing the path, and walking the path" furthermore, i'd like to give thanx to dave b. for encouragement (to what i will not say) and chris for the paintball gunz. thanx to alexandra for listening those years past and to dave m. for telling me to shut up. what can i say? i'm lucky i've had the privilege of calling these people friends, and i can't say i'm looking forward to going our separate ways. my advice to the class of y2k is: life has good parts and bad parts, but when we look back, see only the good, forget the bad. and last but not least, to my love, holly: true care, love brings. always and forever. and fight club wasn't such a bad movie! farwell all. may right be long for the dawn will awaken and annoy you.

Well, I guess I made it. I couldn't have done it without my parents. I did my time and now I'm free! Best part of school was lunch and leaving. But I was "learning" yeah right! Had lots of fun times with all my friends, ER,NT,AS,PC,BH,JC,DR, and many more. I loved the weekends. Biking in Boston on Saturday nights. Playing awesome music in the barn with NT,AS,DR. Driving around with ER causing trouble, always on the look out for cops. Hey, hows my driving? Tailgating Becky's special bus, passing in no passing lanes, yada, yada, yada.

Advice: Stay away from my car! It could prove hazardous to your health. To all who called me Coolio, "ya better, ya better shape up son" (Impbzkt) Shout out to Tim! I don't give a ###! what you say! I didn't do it!

All of the hard work and dedication has finally... er, well, it's been great. All of you who helped retain my sanity over the years: thanks. you know who you are. The system has worked well, what with the office detentions and all. I was always tired and asleep, but sometimes I was on time. It's been great knowing everyone, I hope somebody is famous so I can say I know him or her... That's it; no more; it's done. Now where did I put those college applications? All I remember of 7th grade was seeing all those seniors and being scared. Now I'm a senior & I see all those college kids & I'm scared all over again. Mom&dad-every part of my being has been the result of your influence. People Deserving of space- Josh, Nick, Eric-soon you'll be pulling me over, Brian, Corriveau. Caroline show me you're... Jamie keep the bass bumpin'. The talented Clinic Geoff, Rob, Mike, Mike, Joe; Anne-You made me want to be a better person. Thank you. Many people caused me torment when I was smaller, and I've held a grudge ever since. I wish we could have gotten along better. Very few teachers enlightened my opinion and made me think. I thank those who did. However, the one thing you've taught me that takes precedence over all is that I am always going to be my best teacher, and others can only give direction. I guess its time for me grow up.

"To be awake is to be alive. I have never yet met a man who was quite awake. How could I have looked him in the face? I wished to live deliberately, to front only the essential facts of life, & see if I could not learn what it had to teach, & not, when I came to die, discover that I had not lived. I did not wish to live that which was not life." Thoreau

"If the bell rings, why should we run? Why should we live with such hurry & waste of life? When we are unhurried and wise, we perceive that only great & worthy things have any permanent & absolute existence, that petty fears & petty pleasures are but the shadow of reality. I came to Masco a stranger. I met the right people. I have had more good days than bad. I have very few regrets and many fond memories. I am proud of my decistons and I never let school interfere with my education. I hope you have felt or will feel the same way when you leave. I will leave Masco a friend. Finally, my Masco life is over. Admittedly, these have been the most emotionally oppressive 4 years of my life. But I don't want to be remembered as being that 'strange kid' with the 'chip on his shoulder' who wrote what he really felt about Masco in his 'senior square'. I owe almost all of my successes to my to my parents who stuck in there with me when times were hard and praised me when things finally started to go my way. And to Ms. Tenanty, I give a heartfelt thank you for all the help given to me during these past few years in making math one of my strong points. I would also like to thank Mr. Silvernail for his encouragement and for helping to keep me up to date and on task. Also, thank you Katherine for being a supportive sister and for being a good friend when I needed one.

Well this is it, last year, and good riddance to this school. I didn't learn anything anyway. If you ask me it's just a bunch of junk to make us look smarter to the rest of the world. Guess what, not working. Anyway we're outta here so forget you and your whole system. Oh yeah, Serino, Ms. McGuire, and Mr. Muller, you're cool. The rest of you, WOW, you need lives. Oh, Ms. Calzini and Ms. Stanley you're cool too. And thank you to Maureen Leblanc for being one of the hottest girls in this school. Peace, I'm out. ;:op

Entering late with the reputation of being "the new girl" I was quickly adjusted to the loving atmosphere of Masco. Through many difficult transitions I was able to meet friends that made such an impact on my life that they will never be forgotten. Vilma, my partner in crime, it is so difficult to find words to sum up our endless excursions, dreams we have shared, things you have lectured me on, and how much you mean to me! To my close friends and to the people who I have only given a quick glance at in the halls; my connection with each one of you has resulted in a memory that will remain forever. Mom and dad, your guidance and enduring care has made me believe in myself and realize all that life has to offer, although it may seem sometimes like we are oceans apart, the love I have for you is innumerable. To Jesse, my bf, you have imprinted my life in the past years in an amount that could last me happiness for every day of the rest of my life, I love you forever! Leaving you with one last thought in hopes of inspiration; life is a journey, not a destination, and although you may fall seven times, stand up eight ~ Elaine xoxo

Ethan, Tyler, John (Bobb) "thanks for the job", Davis, Keith, Geoff, Adam S. and all of the other punks and hardcore kids I forgot. Man I loved Masco. This school was awesome to me. I mean, how can someone resist coming to a school that only respects you for your grades and not for you!? Where when ever it rains, the ceiling always falls in! And those lovable disciplinary staff members who try their hardest to pretend to listen to your explanations better known to them as excuses. How someone can be motivated ever so greatly by watching students be praised for their achievements, while the motivationally weakened others get a rub of something foul and dirty in their faces by the school! Did I mention how much I loved this school? These years ruled! I wish they didn't go by so fast!

Good Times, Good Times, Lovable times!

A toast to all the graduating seniors- to the wonder of our innocence, and to its loss. To all your hopes and dreams, and what you'll do with them. To the beauty of true friends, and to the support they'll show you despite the 6 hour time difference. To the teachers who walk the daily gauntlet of our antics, for they remember standing on the other side of the sword. To the rising tide of our youth, and to the memories its ebb will take with it to sea. To Masco, which was never as bad as we made it out to be, and lastly, to our parents, who raised us to love, and love us so much they can barely let us go, but who do anyway...

Emily Randall

Before hair, but still beautiful!

Well, I can see it has been a great 4 years. Owe it all to my dad+mom, and Matt. What would I do without Friday nights with my friends like Paul, Nick, Tim, Tony, Paul, Jamie, Brian G, Hilary, and everybody else that I ever talked to or dealt with. When I become the law enforcer I plan to be, many will be pulled over, but few will be cited as long as you are good to me. AG, HF, DB, MC, yeah, well, whoever comes after you guys, who knows, cause I don't. My advice is to stay away from supermarkets, they will only corrupt you. Don't run with scissors, don't hold fire crackers in your hand, they will only hurt you. Fear me. Take stupid risks, but not too stupid. Germany, need I say more. See you all twenty years from now. TG, PC3, PC, NT, JF, EA, AG, you are my main men. I'd do anything for you. Do I have any teachers to thank, only a few. Skudra for the laughs, Chucky for science, and Ms. Lund for the fun chem. Anyone I have forgotten, sorry. Paul, second grade. Tim, you one cool kid. Jamie, not so bad. Tony, keep it up. Marise, Curly Q. Don't study too hard in college, you done enough of that in High School. Knight Rider, buick, it'll still be there in 2010. Movies, pool, megaphones, mailboxes, fireworks, eggs, and all the other activities we have done. It's been fun, nice knowin' ya. Keep it real. Good luck, u'll need it. ERIC RENDA

With much pride and love.

It has been a long four years, but is quickly coming to an end. I would like to say that I will not miss Masco, but after four long years I hope that I will miss it a little. It has certainly been an interesting experience, and I have to say thanks to all of my friends, especially Nate, Berk, G, C, and Jim. Congratulations guys, we made it through with getting in too much trouble. Berk, try to lay off the paint chips. C, try not to hit your head too much. G, keep the quotes coming. Jim it's been an absolutely wonderful time. Nate, my best friend, what can I say, we have been through everything together, what I want to say will not fit in this little square. I'll just say thanks for being there, without you, the last 18 years would have been awful. Of course, I need to say thanks to my family, I love you guys. Don't worry Devon, I didn't forget about you, and I never will. Love always. (Don't ask why)

If anyone is reading this, it means that I made it, finally!
Well all I have is this little 2 1/4 x 3 3/4 inch space to express all of my thoughts from the past 4 years, so I'll make it brief.
I just want to thank all of those who stood by me through these years and have been a part of this experience, and all of those teachers who believed in me
and helped me accomplish this goal.
Most of all I would like to thank my parents who have always supported me no matter how far fetched things got at times.

E. Soucy...Finally putting my mother like tendencies to use.

R. Sozanski...As the first male waiter at the Agawam.

G. Stephen...Dead.

J. Strickland...I'm going to be married, have kids and a nice job far away from here.

C. Swanson...Working for some firm, married, two kids and playing golf.

T. Targonski...Out of here and being very successful.

K. Taylor...Happily married with two children and lots of money with a house on the ocean.

A. Torres...Sleeping on my couch while my wife cooks me dinner.

J. Torres...I'll be living large and frivolous with my eyes on my riches.

P. Tricca...I'll probably be at work, what a depressing thought.

N. Tully...I'll be a rock star and a master electrician.

R. Turner...Driving my remodeled Dodge Aires.

B. Twing... I see myself yelling, "Drop down and give me twenty!"

B. Viviani...Still complaining about my @$$!

B. Waterman...I have no clue- wherever I end up I'll be smiling.

M. Westfield...Happy.

C. Wetmore...I see myself settled down with a family, having a little more than a million dollars in assets, and 150,000 a year at some business yet to be named.

J. Whelan...I see myself hanging out in Rowean's garage with Nate, Chris, Matt and Alderon and talking about how we'll never be off youthful diversion.

M. White...Eating Capin' Crunch.

R. Wood... I see myself sitting on the beach in Cancun with my beautiful wife drinking martini's... Actually, I see myself laughing at this very idea and realizing I was wrong.

I have been thinking of you very much lately, and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I have managed to find some time to write to you. Dana, Molly, Alyssa, David, Heather, Tim, Geoff, Matt,
Nick, Brian, Becky, Anthony, Ben, Jessica, Amanda, Brian, Brian, Doug, Katherin, Katie, Kait, Ryan and the entire CLASS of 2000 ~

THANKS for a WONDERFUL FOUR YEARS!

In the words of Bob Dylan, this is my wish for each of you ~

May God bless and keep you always, May your wishes all come true

May you always do for others, And let others do for you.

May you build a ladder to the stars, And climb on every rung ~

May you grow up to be righteous, May you grow up to be true

May you always know the truth, And see the lights surrounding you.

May you always be courageous, Stand upright and be strong ~

May your hands always be busy, May your feet always be swift

May you have a strong foundation, When the winds of changes shift.

May your heart always be joyful, May your song always be sung ~

May you stay forever young!

The thistledown's flying, though the winds are still,
On the green grass now lying,
now mounting the hill,
The spring from the fountain boils
Through stones past the counting it bubbles red-hot. The ground par and cracked is like overbaked brea
The greensward all wracked is, bent dried up and dead. The fallow
And gossamers twitter,
flying from weed unto weed,
Hill-tops like hot iron glitter bright in the sun. And the rivers we're eying burn to gold as they run;
Burning hot is the ground,
liquid gold is the air;
